Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

As we have said before, we cannot find words to express our loathing of the reasoning processes under which the Germans justify their murderous forays upon their weaker and often unarmed neighbors. Anyone with an imagination able to vision the maiming of innocent women and children, and non-combatants generally, the destruction of their homes and food supplies, the death of those bound by relationships and friendship to those who miserably survive, cannot but feel deeply the horrible injustice done to the half dozen nations the Germans have outraged.

If one only had the perspective of history in which to view the wanton destruction and the slaughter! Herod's murder of the innocent children of Jerusalem in his search for the infant Christ, accords so completely with cruelties of the times, that we now are inclined to excuse such a wholesale crime as just another instance of an autocrat, all-powerful, insuring his reign by wholesale slaughter lest one among the victims might one day challenge his rule.

But to any thoughtful person the story of Herod, surviving in the world for 2,000 years, and the fact that chroniclers of those times regarded it with such horror that they set it down on their parchments, indicates that even in that crude time, the crime was unprecedented. So today we feel, when we hear the cynical apologies of Hitler and his gang for invasion of his peaceful neighbors, and read the roll of the dead, who have been killed in their homes, on streets, and in the ordinary course of daily comings and goings. The earthquake blasts of high explosives have often been the only warning that death had come from the skies.

One longs for a re-establishment of the old Mosaic law: An eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth. When victory at last crowns the valiant endeavors of the Allies, as we feel very certain that it will, we believe that the Allies would be justified in slaughtering every tenth male German citizen beginning first with the Nazi hierarchy and tapering off through the ranks of the minor and smaller monsters in the Gestapo, the Storm troopers, and finishing off finally all those bloody handed overseers of concentration camps, the slave drivers in Poland, and the scuttling rats of oppression that harass and abuse the starving and helpless.

This feeling of rage we are quite aware is unchrastian. The Mosaic law was outlawed with the birth of Christ from all Christian civilizations. But Germany, beyond the Christian pale, constantly invokes the Mosaic law. She reports that Frieberg, that beautiful and ancient cathedral town, has been bombed from the air by the Allies. She states that for every undefended German city bombed, she will rain explosive on five allied cities in the same class. Whether Freiburg has been bombed or not we do not know, but we can hardly imagine the Allies would bomb it unless they discovered troop concentrations there. Germany's reports have proved false so often, as for instance that of the sinking of a British battleship on the Norwegian coast by an air bomb, that one receives all reports from that source with skepticism. But even so, whether Freiburg was bombed or not, Germany invokes the Mosaic law.

At the close of the world war the Germans were forced to make reparations in part, at least, for the damage done to those countries she invaded. That part of the treaty imposed by Allies has always seemed to us a just retribution upon a people who disturbed the peace of the world. That peace failed after twenty five years we think due in the main to other causes. But so far as paying for damage done to neighbors, we believe that penalty was approved, by all thinking Americans.

But one of the reasons Germany is at war again, is because the world war never was carried into Germany. The Germans saw very little of the actual destruction of homes, of innocent non-combatants, of the ruin which war leaves in its wake. Since the Napoleonic wars they have never suffered invasion.

We realize that the Allies will

HEAVY SNOWS ASSURE AMPLE WATER SUPPLY

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—(UP)—Although the snow pack in the Sierra Nevada melted rapidly during April, latest snow measurements of the Division of Water Resources still indicate that there will be an ample summer supply of water in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, Frank W. Clark, director of the department of public works, said today.

"In the northern Sierra," Clark said, "the present zone of melting does not extend beyond the 8000 ft. contour. The last measurement from Mt. Shasta, Mt. Lassen and Carson Pass show very little less water content than that reported in April.

"Toward the southern end of the Sierra, the melting zone was 20 per cent higher than last months pack, having now disappeared from the Kern watershed at elevation of 9000."

Although the rains of April were light, precipitation stations show that the upper Sacramento watershed received a normal supply of rain, but the rest of the Seirra was below normal, ranging from a low of 25 per cent for the Stanislaus watershed to a high of 90 per cent for the Kings. Southern California's precipitation for April was well above normal—San Diego county having the greatest percentage of surplus.

Any water shortage that might be expected as a result of the deficient April rains, he said, is apparently being made up for by the long time ry over effect of the two heavy rain periods of February and March.

TELEVISION WILL BE EMPLOYED AT GOP CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Television, newest of the modern miracles, makes its bow in the big time Monday, June 24, when it takes its place alongside photographers, news reels, the press and radio at the 1940 Republican National Convention in Philadelphia.

John Hamilton, chairman of the Republican National Committee, today characterized the appearance of television at the Republican Convention as "an example of private enterprise at its best."

"What could be more appropriate," Hamilton said, "than having television—the newest of our industries—being brought sharply to the attention of the nation through its use at the convention of the only party in the country which gives high approval to the American system of free, private enterprise. It was but a few ys ago that the New Deal displayed its animosity toward successful private enterprise when, through its dominated communications commission, it lashed out at this very television infant industry, demanding that it halt its efforts to further the new medium through advertising".

All the color and importance of this great political event will be caught by the television camera eye at Philadelphia, and relayed to the some 5,000 television receiving sets located generally along the eastern seaboard from Massachusetts to Delaware. Experts figure eight to ten persons will be at each set, approximating 45,000 Americans who will se and hear the convention proceedings at the same time from points as far as 300 miles distant from convention hall in the Quaker city.

NO WORD FROM DAVIS RELATIVES IN NETHERLANDS

No word has come to Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Davis in regard to their daughter, son in law and three grandchildren in Amsterdam, Holland, since the Germans made a sudden dash into Holland and started bombing raids on cities. Mrs. Davis is still in Southern California visiting friends. She returned from Holland last fall.

SALE TO CONTINUE

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church have decided to continue its rummage sale now in progress for several more days this week. Public patronage has been very good, officers of the society report. It is being held in the store next to the Armory, formerly occupied by the Noyes' Electrical Shop.

MRS. FLORENCE EVANS TO BEGIN 87TH YEAR

Mrs. Florence Evans will celebrate her eighty sixth birthday tomorrow at her home on Boulder street where friends will call to wish her health and happiness. She received many bouquets of flowers Sunday, or Mother's Day. Mrs. Evans is native of Ohio and came to Nevada City when a small child with her mother and joined the husband and father who had preceeded them for his health and who participated in the "gold rush". She has a wealth of memories and her long life has been filled with many kindly deeds.

COUNTY RELIEF COSTS FAR LESS THAN IN STATE

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—Members of the state legislature in reconvened session this week were for the first time in recent years armed with detailed information about state finances secured by their own members and independent of reports by Olson administration state department heads.

The figures, gathered by legislative committees during statewide investigations during the last three months ,showed:

On February 16, when the State Relief Administration reported only $330,224,16 on hand for relief payments, and instituted a drastic 40 per cent cut in relief, the SRA actually had $2,896,763 on hand, according to a Price, Waterhouse & Co. auditing account, Assemblyman Norris Poulson reported.

During the 40 per cent cut period, administrative overhead costs of the State Relief Administration averaged 20.4 per cent of every relief dollar, although county relief departments showed overhead costs as low as 3 per cent and average overhead far below the SRA figures.

During the last few months, tremendous quantities of supplies have been purchased by the State Relief Administration, despite the drop in case load recently from 116,000 to 5,000.

"The interim committee investigations undoubtedly are the most constructive undertaking of the legislature in recent years, and should result in great savings to the taxpayers of California," said Speaker Gordon Garland of the assembly as the legislature reconvened. "Aside from the investigation of the State Relief Administration, the committee on Governmental Efficiency and Economy which has investigated state departments has recommended changes in routine conduct of state business that should save millions of dollars.

"Economy in state expenditures should be the watchword—not additional taxes. We firmly believe this represents the will of the people," Garland concluded.

CAMPTONVILLE BOY IS LOST OVERNIGHT

CAMPTONVILLE, May 13. — The community was in considerable turmoil at day break Thursday morning when it became known that Dick Williams, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Williams, of this place had become lost on Oregon Creek the night before. He had gone fishing with his father and they became separated and the boy got lost with the darkness overtaking him. Rather than attempt to make his way out of the canyon in the dark of night, he spent the night on a large rock.

His folks were greatly alarmed upon his not returning home and spread the alarm and at daybreak a large searching party set out to find him. Soon after the party left the boy returned, and then further parties had to be sent out to inform the searchers that the boy was safe.

Starts Home—

Work started the past week on the new home of Carl Tobiassen, Jr. The site is on the Tahoe Ukiah highway east of Nevada City on a part of the property formerly owned by Mrs. M. Hogue. Young Tobiassen is to be married to Miss Colleen Roberts during the summer.

Oakland Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Armstrong of Oakland spent the past week end with her sister, Mrs. W. L. Williamson and visited other relatives. Armstrong is manager of the American Book company in the bay district.

MANIAC PUTS UP VIOLENT BATTLE WITH 4 DEPUTIES

After a violent battle with four deputies who were placing straps about his arms and legs in a small cell in the court house, Charles Sack, 39, sniper from the You Bet district, was taken to the State Hospital for the Insane at Stockton this afternoon.

Deputy Sheriffs Fred Williford, Carl Larsen, Bill Woods and Donald Fraser attempted to get him out of the cell and into the automobile without any trouble. When he refused and threatened to strike anyone that came into his cell, the four men rushed in and grappled with him, finally throwing him on the bed where handcuffs were put on. Then he was securely trussed with heavy straps and the steel cuffs removed.

He was taken last night at his home in You Bet after his wife, Mrs. Relda Sack, reported that he had threatened and attempted suicide. He stabbed himself in the abdomen with a knife, necessitating two stitches. Officers from the sheriff's office apprehended Sack at midnight last night and took him to the county hospital to treat his self-inflicted wound.

At the hospital he struck an intern and threw another hosptial attache to the floor and beat and choked him before he could be subdued. It took five men to hold him while Dr. Norbert Frey sewed up s wound.

His wife swore out a warrant charging insanity this morning before Judge George Gildersleeve. At his hearing conducted in the sheriff's office it was decided to send him to the hospital in Stockton.

He was taken to Stockton by Officers Wood and Fraser.

NEVADA CITY IS ANGLER'S MECCA

Hundreds of motorists passed through Nevada City over the week end many of them out early to fish for trout in the higher mountain lakes and streams. It was learned from Game Warden Earl Hiscox this morning that trout fishing is poor in this section as there is too much water in the streams.

A Nevada City party fishing on Donner Lake Sunday were Dick Lane, George Ebaugh, and Edwin Berger. They had only fair luck a strong wind brough up big waves and made poor fishing. Howard Penrose was among the local fishermen who were successful in bringing in a good basket.

Last week a group of local fishermen caught limits of trou. on Poorman's Creek above Washington. In the party were Herbert Skeahan, Walter St. John and Bert McBride.

John Tognarelli and Fred Reed caught a trout limit each in Blue Lakes over the week end.

NEV. CITY NINE DEFEATS FOREST HILL VISITORS

The Nevada City baseball team won over Forest Hill yesterday by a score of 10 to 0 on Cashin Field. The Nevada City boys made nine hits and ten runs to win in a lively game.

McKenzie, Nevada City pitcher struck out 19 men and allowed 5 hits but kept them well scattered and was never in serious trouble. Due to a sore arm Catcher Franz was replaced by Stintson, the first of the seventh inning and Robbins replaced Stintson at short stop. The Forest Hill pitchers struck out four men.

Next Sunday Nevada City plays Auburn at Cashin Field and they are expecting a tough game. Battery for Nevada City McKenzie, p; Franz c.

SELLS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott sold their home on Gethsemene street to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant who moved into the newly acquired home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and little daughter have moved into a house built by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harris, on Nihell street where they will remain until they make definite plans.

MOTOR CYCLIST IN COLLISION WITH CAR

Wilbur Brooks, 17 years of age who resides in Boston Ravine in Grass Valley, suffered a broken wrist and other injuries when his motorcycle collided with a machine operated by Robert Bolster of Oakland, on the turn just north of the Town Talk service station yesterday. Robert Hattox, riding tandem with Brooks escaped injury and the occupants of the Bolster machine escaped injury. Brooks was moved to the Miners Hospital in Nevada City. The accidental was investigated by Captain Joe Blake and other highway patrol officers.

WILLIAM BRADY CALLED TO REST

William Patrick Brady, who was born at Chalk Bluff, November 19, 1877, east of Nevada City, passed away at four o'clock this morning in a local hospital. He has been ill a year but his passing comes as a shock to his many friends. William Brady was reared in the You Bet district and after completing school, followed mining and timbering in mines, later becoming foreman of several mines in that and the Scotts Flat districts. He was noted for his many kindly deeds.

Left to mourn his passing are a brother, Tom Brady, You Bet; two sisters, Mrs. Kate Drummond, San Francisco and Mrs. Mary Pfefferle, Sebastopol; besides several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock in St. Canice Catholic church in Nevada City. Interment will be in the family plot in the Catholic plot on West Broad street. Holmes Funeral Home has charge of funeral arrangements and Father P. O'Reilly will officiate at the services.

FISH PRESERVATION PROBLEM IS SOLVED

Solution to the problem of preserving the Sacramento River Salmon Fishery valued at $100,000 to $170,000 annually, has been found, Dr. Paul R. Needham, acquatic biologist of the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, reported to the conservation section of the Sacramento Valley Council meeting at the Senator Hotel.

The plans consists in trapping the fish at the foot of the Shasta Dam and transferring them to new spawning grounds, Dr. Needhaf said. The work will be done by the Bureau of Reclamation, which financed the studies and which will provide funds to transfer the spawning salmon.

BIG CAMPTONVILLE CROWD AT BENEFIT

CAMPTONVILLE, May 13.—The Radio Benefit show staged by the Camptonville Branch of the Marysville Union high school and the Camptonville Union Grammar school was put on with a big success in the auditorium of the local Masonic hall Friday evenin before a large audience.

The children of the primary department were well trained and portrayed their parts very well. The musical numbers were good, the song, by his own accompaniment on the guitar by Wesley Delaney brought a big applause. The play by the high school students, "Ghost Story" was put on in very good fashion, the leading players, Miss Carmen Cassano and Leland Pauly, receiving many compliments.

Much credit is due the teachers, Mrs. Grace Pauly, Mrs. Constance Pfiffer and C. W. Williams for their work in training the pupils for this entertainment. Proceeds from the affair go towards a new radio for the schools.

SWEET PEA FEUDISTS

The recent item in the Nugget on the Lageson-Long sweet pea feud has not spread oil on the troubled waters at all according to Irving Long who brought a bouquet of his choice flowers to the newspaper office to prove their beauty. Each one still contends his flowers blossomed first.

One glance at the bouquet this afternoon by L. G Lageson, agricultural commissioner, and he stated positively his flowers are larger than those of Long's.

Long has a sweet pea patch eighteen inches wide and one hundred and twenty feet in length. Next year he plans a larger finer sweet pea garden.

C OF C OFFICERS MAKE REQUESTS FOR ROAD FUNDS

Bert Foreman and H. F. Sofge, president and secretary of the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce attended a meeting of the state highway officials in Sacramento Friday. They were the only ones to appear from Nevada county. Calls were made for recommendations from Nevada county for highways and Mr. Sofge asked for several items.

He first asked that the 1941-43 budget include funds to finish highway 20 into Bear Valley east of Nevada City to highway 40 and if there is sufficient money to finish the pavement on this highway. The survey calls for a bridge across Bear River and the road will be on a higher level. If this could not be done he requested that a shovel be sent in to cut off several sharp turns on the present highway this side of Bear River. These turns are extremely hazardous and large busses or trucks have a hard task to make the trip. Mr. Sofge, since the meeting, has contacted the highway patrol to ascertain the number of deaths and accidents along this strip of highway.

Another request was that a four lane highway be constructed between Nevada City and Grass Valley, and plans are to keep on until some action is taken on this. Nearly all accidents begin at Hills Flat and end at Town Halk. It was found Friday that this highway between the twin cities is sixth in the state for amount of travel.

It was learned that Lake county and the State Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring a tour the full length of the Tahoe Ukiah highway which starts at Calpella and ends at the junction of highway 40 above Emigrant Gap.

PROPOSALS FOR ROAD IS TABLED BY SUPERVISORS

An application for the Nevada County Board of Supervisors to contribute $1,000 as the county's share in repairing and reconstructing the road from Bear Valley to Bowman Dam was tabled Saturday until the June meeting, as the supervisors concluded this month's session.

Requests for a county library and a farm adviser were also held over for further discussion at the next meeting.

There was considerable discussion over the proposed repair of the road. It was originally built in pioneer days only to be abandoned later. The forest service rebuilt it in 1920 and that winter the Nevada Irrigation district hauled thousands of tons of machinery over the road when it was wet and soft, resulting in ruts that rendered the road virtually impassable.

Although the irrigation district promised to rebuilt it, no action has ever been taken. The new proposal asks that the county, irrigation district and the forest service unite in the reconstruction.

The supervisors declined to waive the tax free on traveling circuses that was requested by W. P. Mitchell, representing Banner Mountain Post, V. F. W. Mitchell asked the board to forego collection of the tax on a circus which is to appear in this section under the auspices of the V. F. W. Local proceeds would be used for charity work. The tax is $15 for the first day and $10 for each succeeding day.

BIDS ARE CALLED TO REPAIR HIGHWAY 40

Bids have been called by the Division of Highways to cover grading and surfacing 5.5 miles of U. S. 40 between Hempshire Rocks and Soda Springs. Bids have also been called to cover grading aid surfacing of 2.9 miles between Tahoe City and three miles westerly.

Civilization Aflame

Save for the early days of September, 1914, when, their backs to the wall before Paris, 1,000,000 Frenchmen defeated 1,500,000 Germans in the four day first Battle of the Marne, the civilized world has never known a week such as this one. The Battle of the Marne proved the decisive battle of the first World War. And now millions of men have clashed in a decisive combat that may reach a turning point even as this sentence is read—or may go on until millions are dead and a civilization aflame is reduced to the ashes of a new Dark Age. If the battle goes against the Democracies, all that human enlightenment has striven for in Europe—freedom, respect for law, sanctity of covenants, decent standards of living for the masses—will be washed away in the blood bath that is soaking the soil of the stricken low countries.

Strike-Bound Jobs

The total yearly income of nearly a quarter-million Americans was destroyed directly through strikes in 1939, according to disquieting records released last week by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics.

In 2613 strikes, 1,170,962 workers were idle approximately 17.812.000 man-days—the equivalent of a year's idleness for 59,373 workers, each of whom, by conservative estimate, had three dependents. The support of hundreds of thousands of women and children gone with the bread-winner's strike-bound jobs!

Yet the figures present but a fraction of the total real loss. Where plants were forced to shut down or restrict output, vast numbers of workers, not directly connected with the strikes in question, were involuntarily thrown out of work When a business could not meet demands and survive, it failed—and all jobs were gone. Where a business could not balance profits with strike-won labor costs, it often was obliged to get along with fewer employes, and thus the general unemployment situation was intensified rather than relieved.

California's share in creating those national statistics is an indictment of those workers who have permitted themselves to be led by radical violence-advocating leaders. Excepting only populous New York and Pennsylvania, California had more strikes than any state in the Union last year. Los Angeles stood third among all cities, San Francisco fourth — both ahead of Chicago and Detroit, and behind only New York and Pennsylvania!

That record will please all belligerent czars, little and big, using the power of American labor to perpetuate themselves. It will please few real Americans, in the ranks of labor or out. And it should shame California into opening her eyes and studying the real purposes of its most belligerent labor leaders.

The Democracies Face Facts

Both the weakness and the strength of democracy were high-lighted against the background of desperate war last week at one of the most dramatic sessions ever held in Britain's historic House of Commons.

The weakness was in sharp contrast to the machine-smooth heel-clicking efficiency of Nazidom at war. The English were at loggerheads among themselves, newspapers were condemning Chamberlain and his cabinet as incompetent bunglers who should be thrown out of office to save the nation from defeat, and conversely praising them as men who should be retained to save the nation. In the Commons, there were stormy attacks and counter-attacks. Such a nation cannot be as sharply decisive, as quick in action, as sure in method, as can a nation like Germany ,where everything moves and everybody acts, talks, reads and thinks as one dictator wills.

The strength was in Britain's letting off steam—of Englishmen counselling together, freely condemning, freely praising, together arguing and together deciding—from the plain facts before them—what to do next and how to do it. The English now know what they're up against — a powerful, ruthless opponent. The German people "know" only that they are "invincible." The Fuehrer has said so!

Which shall win the long run?

History has answers: Democratic Britain has been a dominant world power since Drake sank the Spanish Armada in 1588—has seen autocracies go down through the centuries: Spain, Russia, the abortive French dictatorship of Napoleon. Free speech, a free press, the will and liberty to face hard facts honestly, may be armor too impregnable even for Hitler's vaunted bombers.

Washington Snapshots

By JAMES PRESTON

Facts which don't make the head lines these days disclose an interesting situation, for they show that Washington is outdoing the man on the flying trapeze—with the greatest of ease it goes two ways at once.

Folks here still talk about the country being a "democracy" in which the majority rules. But at the same time, many of them do all they can to keep representatives of the people from carrying out the will of a majority of the citizens.

Typical is the story behind the Walter-Logan bill, which would grant relief to thousands of citizens from the rule of bureaucrats. The people want that bill. The House passed it by a three to one vote. A majority of the delegations from 35 states were for it, while only three state delegations opposed it.

Yet every possible effort is being made to keep the bill from becoming law.

Another good sample is the Wagner Act. All public opinion polls have shown for a year, and continue to show, that a great majority of the people want that law amended. Yet here again, the powers that be seek to thwart the will of the majority because a minority—the CIO—likes the law "as is."

There is a growing public belief which was summarized by a National Press Clubber who remarked: "The Wagner Act gives the same protection to racketeeers that the prohibition amendment did to "the bootleggers." But still those in control want to preserve this protection.

There is little doubt, too, but that a majority of the people would like to see government expenses cut before their taxes go skyhigh. Yet folks who control Congressional machinery are doing little about reducing expenditures. The debt, which some day must be paid, goes higher daily.

This remarkable calculation was made only recently by one House member who is worrying about the future. "We would have to take 85 per cent of the net income away from all people who want income tax returns to pay the running expense of government this year."

Here is still another sample of thwarting the will of the majority. Nearly everybody agrees that despite a laudable objective of putting a bottom under wages, the Wagner Hour law does lots of unfair things such as requiring in some cases that men who make as much as $10,000 a year be paid time and a half for overtime.

Businessmen were summoned to Washington to tell about such cases. They hoped to get relief in unfair instances. Yet when they testified in public hearings, they were cross-examined by labor union lawyers at length—and without any advance notice that they would be cross-examined, or that they could be cross-examine other witnesses.

THINKING OUT LOUD

not resort to anything like decimation of Germany's male population. They dare not have recourse to the brutal law of Moses. But it does seem to us, if with the end of this war the British and French could have the guts to hang from every tree along that wide avenue of Berlin, Unter der Linden, all those responsible for the ordered crime and outrages done both within and without Germany, it might go a long way toward discouraging another German outbreak within a century. We do not know how many lindens there are along that avenue, nor how great a burden their limbs can bear, but we do believe that the German people, who seem completely to lack any imagination, any concept of the cruelties their leaders inflict upon the neighboring nations, since reparations taught them nothing, would gain some understanding of war's brutalities, if they could see those noble lindens bearing the horrible fruit of war.

It is high time that aggressive wars were made an international crime.

DYNAMIC DRAMA STARTS SOON AT NEVADA THEATRE

With George Raft and Joan Bennett sharing stellar honors and a strong supporting cast featuring Walter Pidgeon, Gladys George Lloyd Nolan and June Knight, Walter Wanger's "The House Across the Bay" will have its initial showing at the Nevada Theatre on Thursday through United Artists release. The new film production is based on an original story by Myles Connolly, and the central figure in the picture is Branda Bentley, played by Miss Bennett, a young girl confronted with the problem of adjusting her life to a strange fate when her husband is sent to prison for income tax evasion.

This role, which is outstandingly dramatic, gives the alluring Miss Bennett wide scope as she is seen as a singer and dancer in addition to her dramatic opportunities. In one sequence of the film she sings and dances "Chula Chihuahua," her own interpretation of the South American rhumba and later introduces "I'll Be a Fool Again," This, of course, is a radical innovation for the actress, who is in the past has confined her ballroom dancing. In the star's gay self to the more sedate measures of and colorful rhumba debut she carries a four pound Chihuahua dog in her arms during the performance.

More than 4,000 trees, 40,000 shrubs and millions of flowering plants will be leafed out and in full bloom when the 1940 Golden Gate international exposition opens May 25.

ELECTRICITY "TAKES OVER" in the KITCHEN

LOW RATE . . . When you use an electric range you buy electricity at a very low rate.

MAGIC SPEED . . . Modern electric ranges have super speed units. In every cooking operation you'll find electric ranges will give you all the speed you will ever need.

CLEAN . . . Of course the electric range is the cleanest thing ever. Always stays like new and helps keep your kitchen looking like new.

An Electric Range cooks your food as the electric refrigerator keeps it... perfectly, automatically and at low cost

Throughout California the swing is on to electric cooking. In thousands of homes, where electricity has already taken over the job of refrigeration, electric ranges are now taking over the job of cooking. This electric cooking is bringing a new thrill in housekeeping.

Here are the things these thousands of housewives like. They like the speed and the perfection and the ease and the low cost of electric cooking. They like the dependable heat of the electric range because it is exact heat with no guessing. And food cooked electrically looks and tastes better.

Join the swing to electric cooking. See the new low priced 1940 Electric Ranges. Learn how little it costs right at home to cook electrically. It is not a luxury. It is for you—for everybody. So why wait any longer to cook the modern way—buy your electric range today!

Helen Winney Marries Buel Richardson

Miss Helen Gertrude Winney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Winney, who reside on the Tahoe Ukiah highway east of this city, was married to Buel Harold Richardson in the local Methodist church Sunday at 2 o'clock by Rev. H. H. Buckner. Lovely spring flowers were used in profusion to decorate the church for the impressive service.

The charming bride attended the local schools and is a native of this city where she has spent her entire life.

The groom came from Missouri about four years ago and now holds a position with the Scotia mine in Grass Valley.

The young couple plan to make their home in Grass Valley. They have the best wishes of the entire community for happiness in their journey through life together.

Rev. Ralston Performs Marriage Service

Rev. David Ralston went to Sacramento Sunday and performed a marriage service for Miss Madeline Bergantz and Thomas Cvitkovich in the Oak Park Methodist church. The young man was a staunch member of the Oak Park church five years under Rev. Ralston and was district president of the Epworth League for three years.

WORKMEN ADD FINAL TOUCHES TO 1940 FAIR

The 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition is on its way!

This week the final touches are being administered at Treasure Island in anticipation of opening day a week from next Saturday.

Out of a chaos of painting equipment, heavily laden trucks, pounding carpenters, puffing locomotives, the heavy rolling paving equipment and rushing men and women, the exposition has commenced to emerge in all the glory that will belong to it during the 1940 season.

The Treasure Island army unit has arrived and has taken up its quarters in the barracks near the federal building on the east side of the island. Foreign and commercial exhibits are being moved into place, while the Gayway, fun zone of Treasure Island is humming with scores of new and spectacular concessions and rides being set up in readiness for the big opening day.

During the past week announcement was made that the Miss America show will be back on the Gayway. This is a Sally Rand enterprise and work on the show was commenced this week.

Scores of workmen are engaged in refining and re-decorating the former Guatemala Pavilion, which this year will house Portugal's risplay.

Rehearsals are under way for America! Cavalcade of a Nation," the Billy Rose Aquacade, and the new Folies Bergere. Scalici's Puppet Show was scheduled to arrive at Treasure Island this week and will be installed in the auditorium of the Hall of Western States.

MORE ILLICIT DOPE PEDDLERS ARRESTED

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—(UP)—Concentration of the state division of narcotics enforcement on apprehending larger dealers in illicit narcotics before distribution can be made to street peddlers and addicts yielded substantial results during March, Paul Madden, chief of the division, reported today.

One arrest in San Francisco during the month resulted in seizure of 12,250 grains of morphine, during which Madden said was larger than the entire seizures of that drug made in the previous year.

"Obviously," Madden said, "a great deal more has been accomplished in the way of curbing the illicit narcotic traffic by this large seizure at its source than would have been the case if hundreds of small street peddlers and addicts had been arrested.

Madden said the program of concentrating on known dealers in narcotics will be continued.

Mrs. Sinbad, the Marysville flood refugee hen, has become a good will ambassador for the Golden Gate international exposition which opens its 1940 season May 25.
